

Early College Performance

Pierre M. Lucien

Policy Analyst, DESE

SDP Fellow, Harvard University

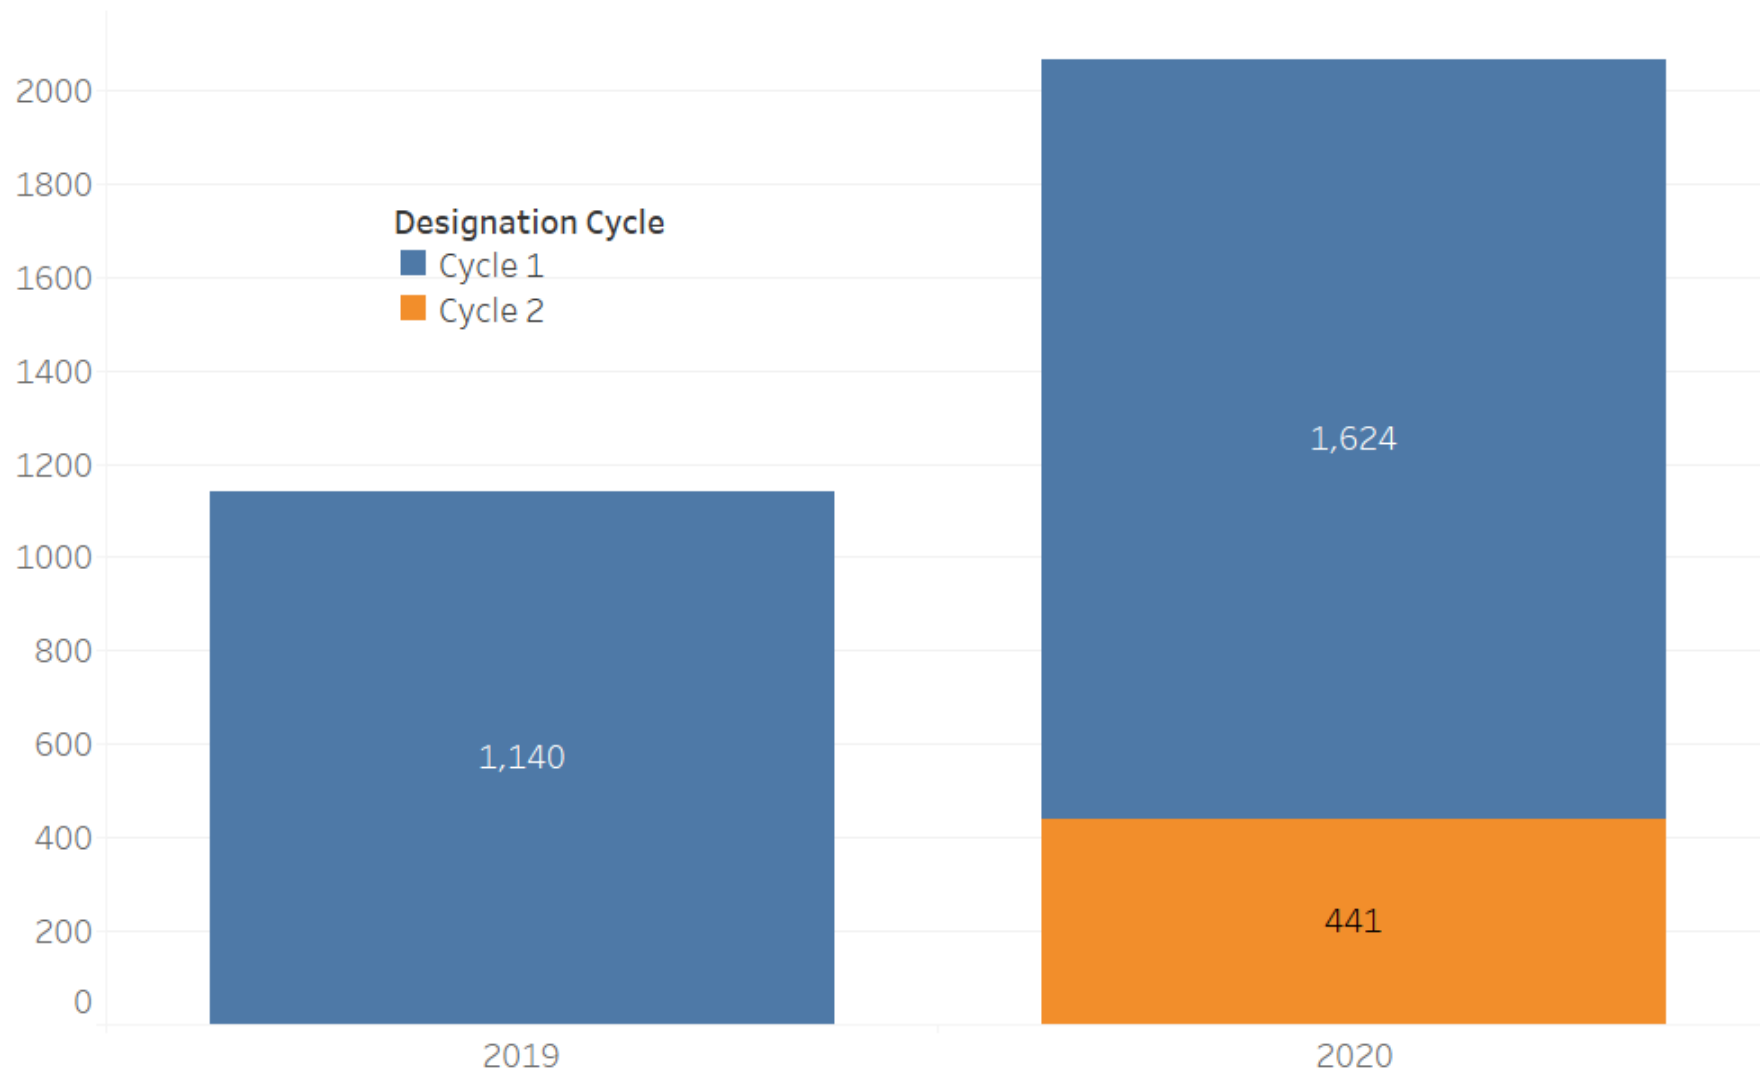

Data Sources and Definitions

- Data Sources
 - Student Information Management System (SIMS)
 - Student Course Schedule (SCS)
 - Massachusetts Comprehensive Assessment System (MCAS)
 - National Student Clearinghouse (NSC)
- Definitions (in order of appearance)
 - Designation Cycle: distinction made between programs that started in fall 2018 and fall 2019
 - EC/Early College: a student participant in the early college initiative
 - School Peer: the students at school offering an early program who do not participate
 - State Peer: a one-to-one match of EC students with state peers of identical observable characteristics

	Early College	State Peer
Asian	5%	5%
Black	24%	24%
Hispanic	54%	54%
Multiracial	1%	1%
White	14%	14%
EL	9%	9%
Eco. Dis.	46%	46%
Female	58%	58%
SWD	6%	6%

EC is growing in more ways than one:

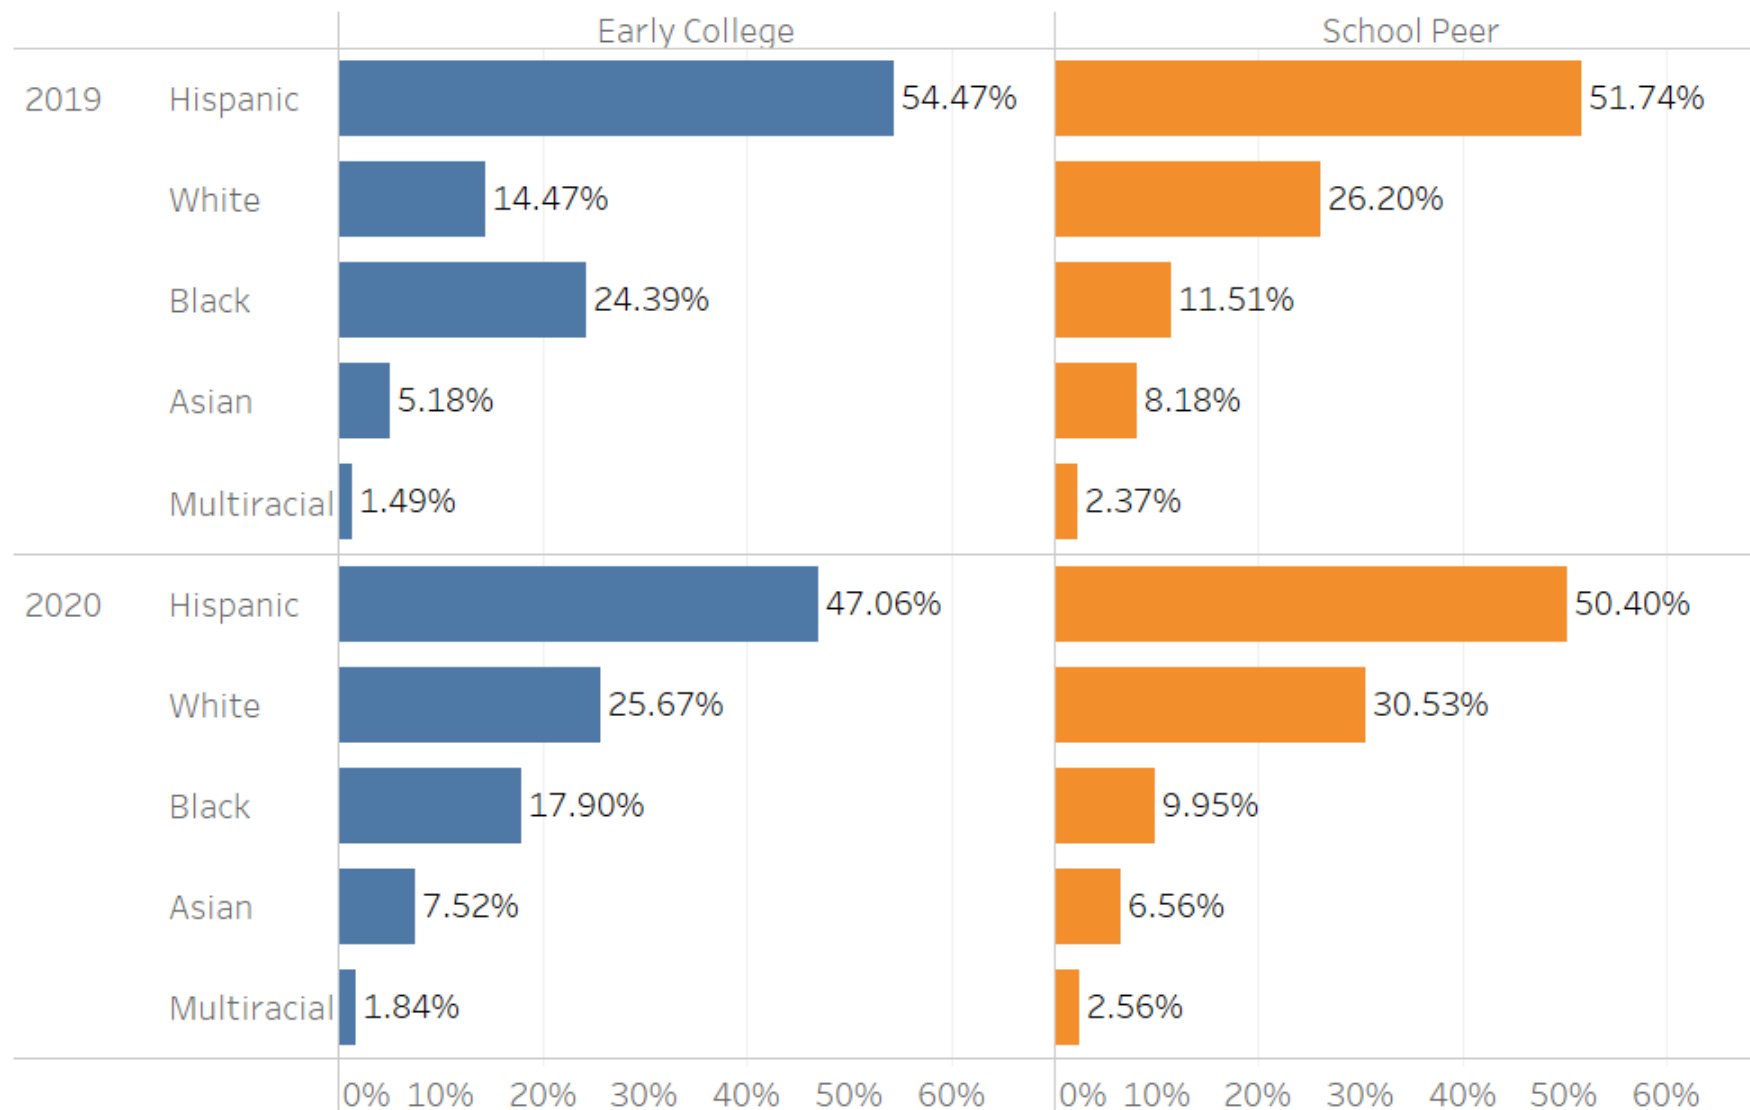

Participation by Year and Designation Cycle (9th-12th)

Source: Student Information Management System (SIMS)

EC enrolls fewer white students:

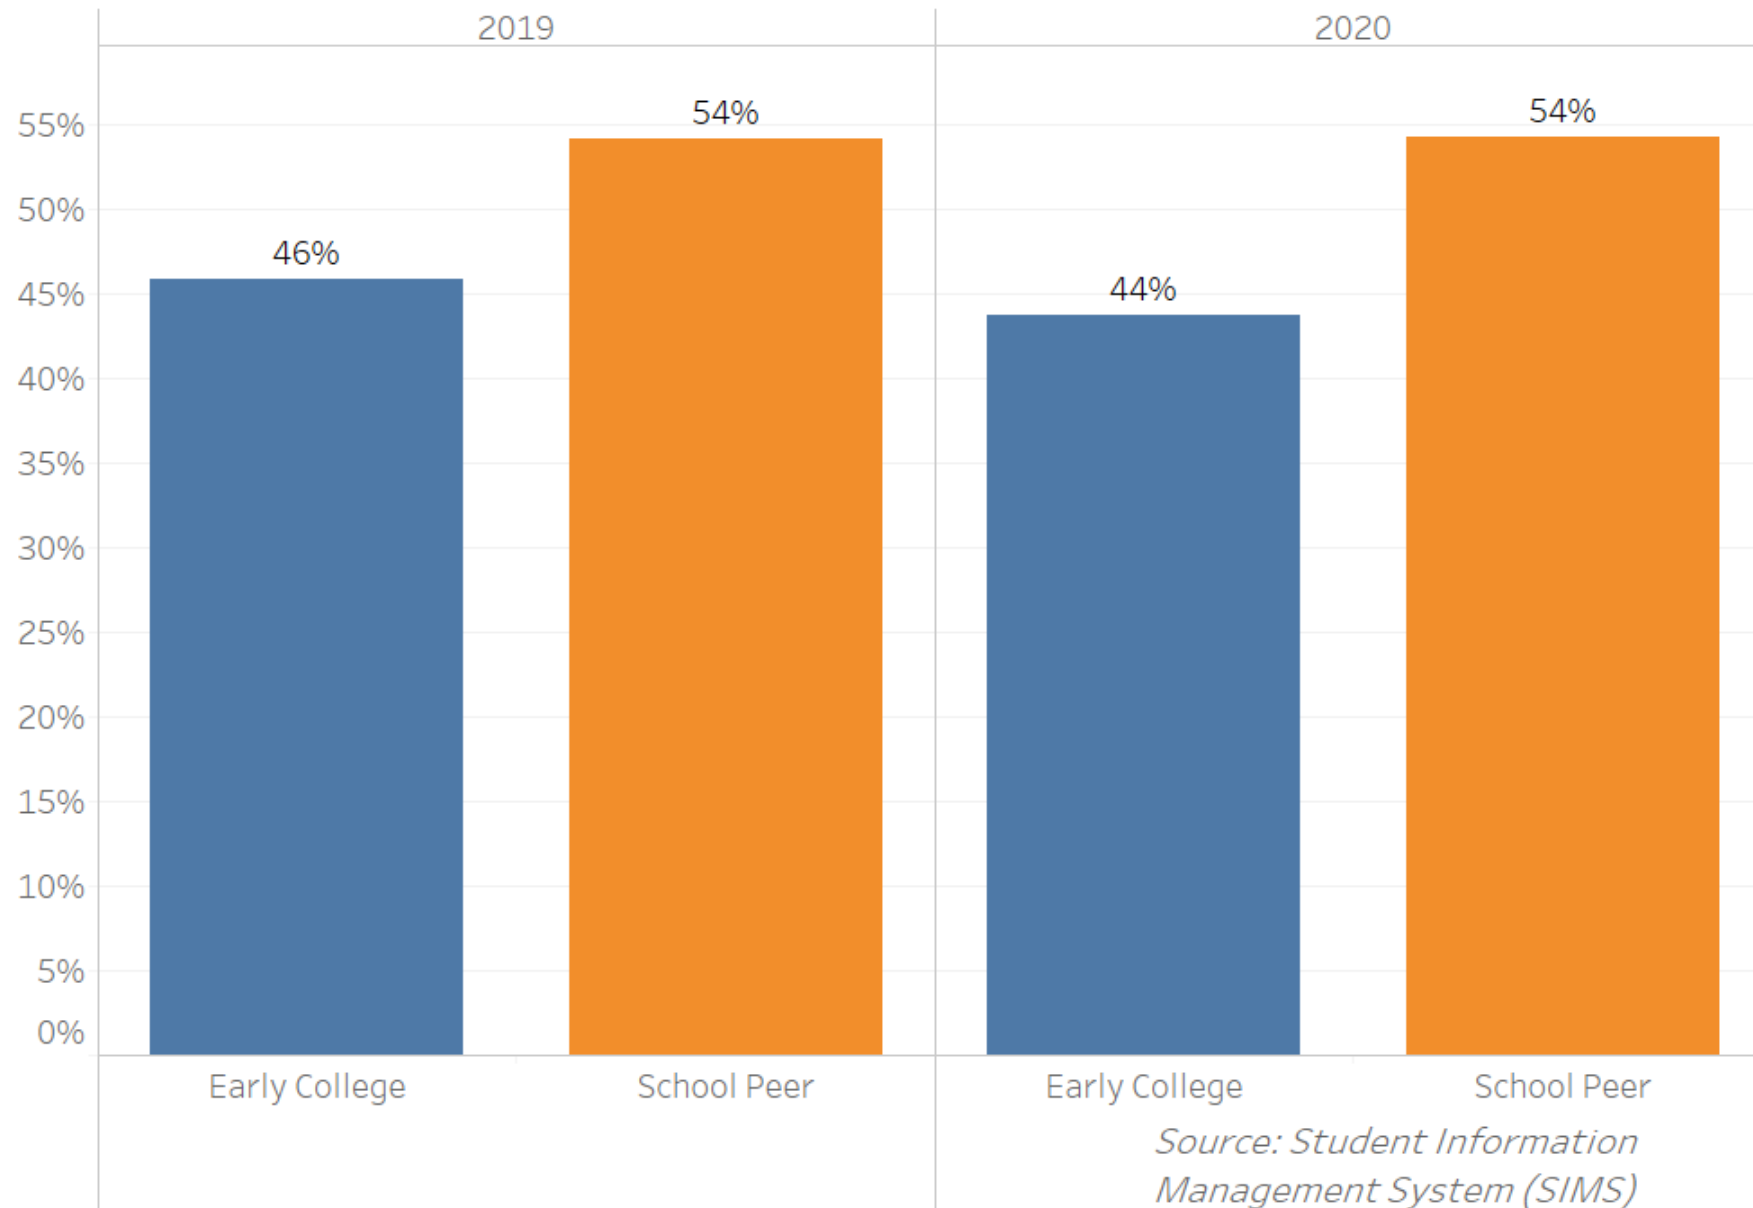

Racial Breakdown by Year (9th-12th)

Source: Student Information Management System (SIMS)

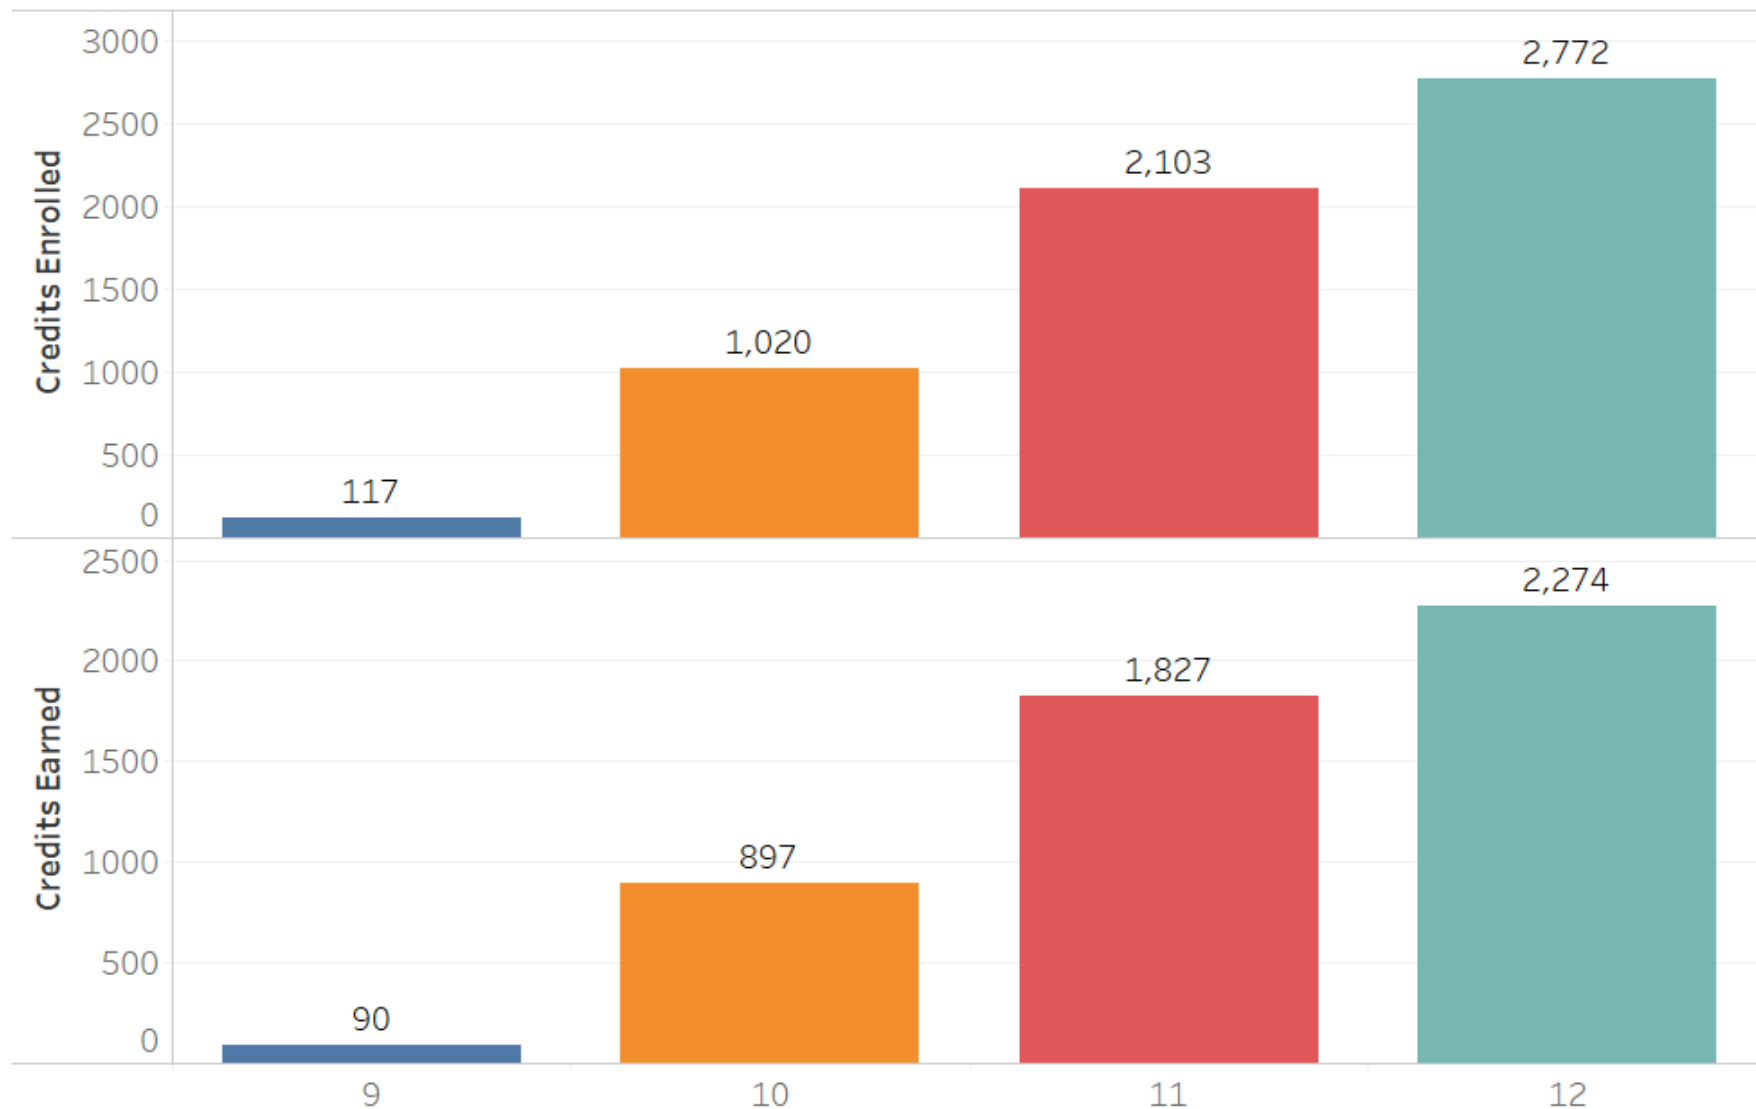

EC enrolls fewer economically disadvantaged students:

Economically Disadvantaged Status by Year (9th-12th)

5,000 Credits earned at 85% pass rate saved families $1 million:

Credits Enrolled and Earned by 2019 (9th-12th)

Source: Student Course Schedule (SCS)

No baseline differences between EC and State Peer:

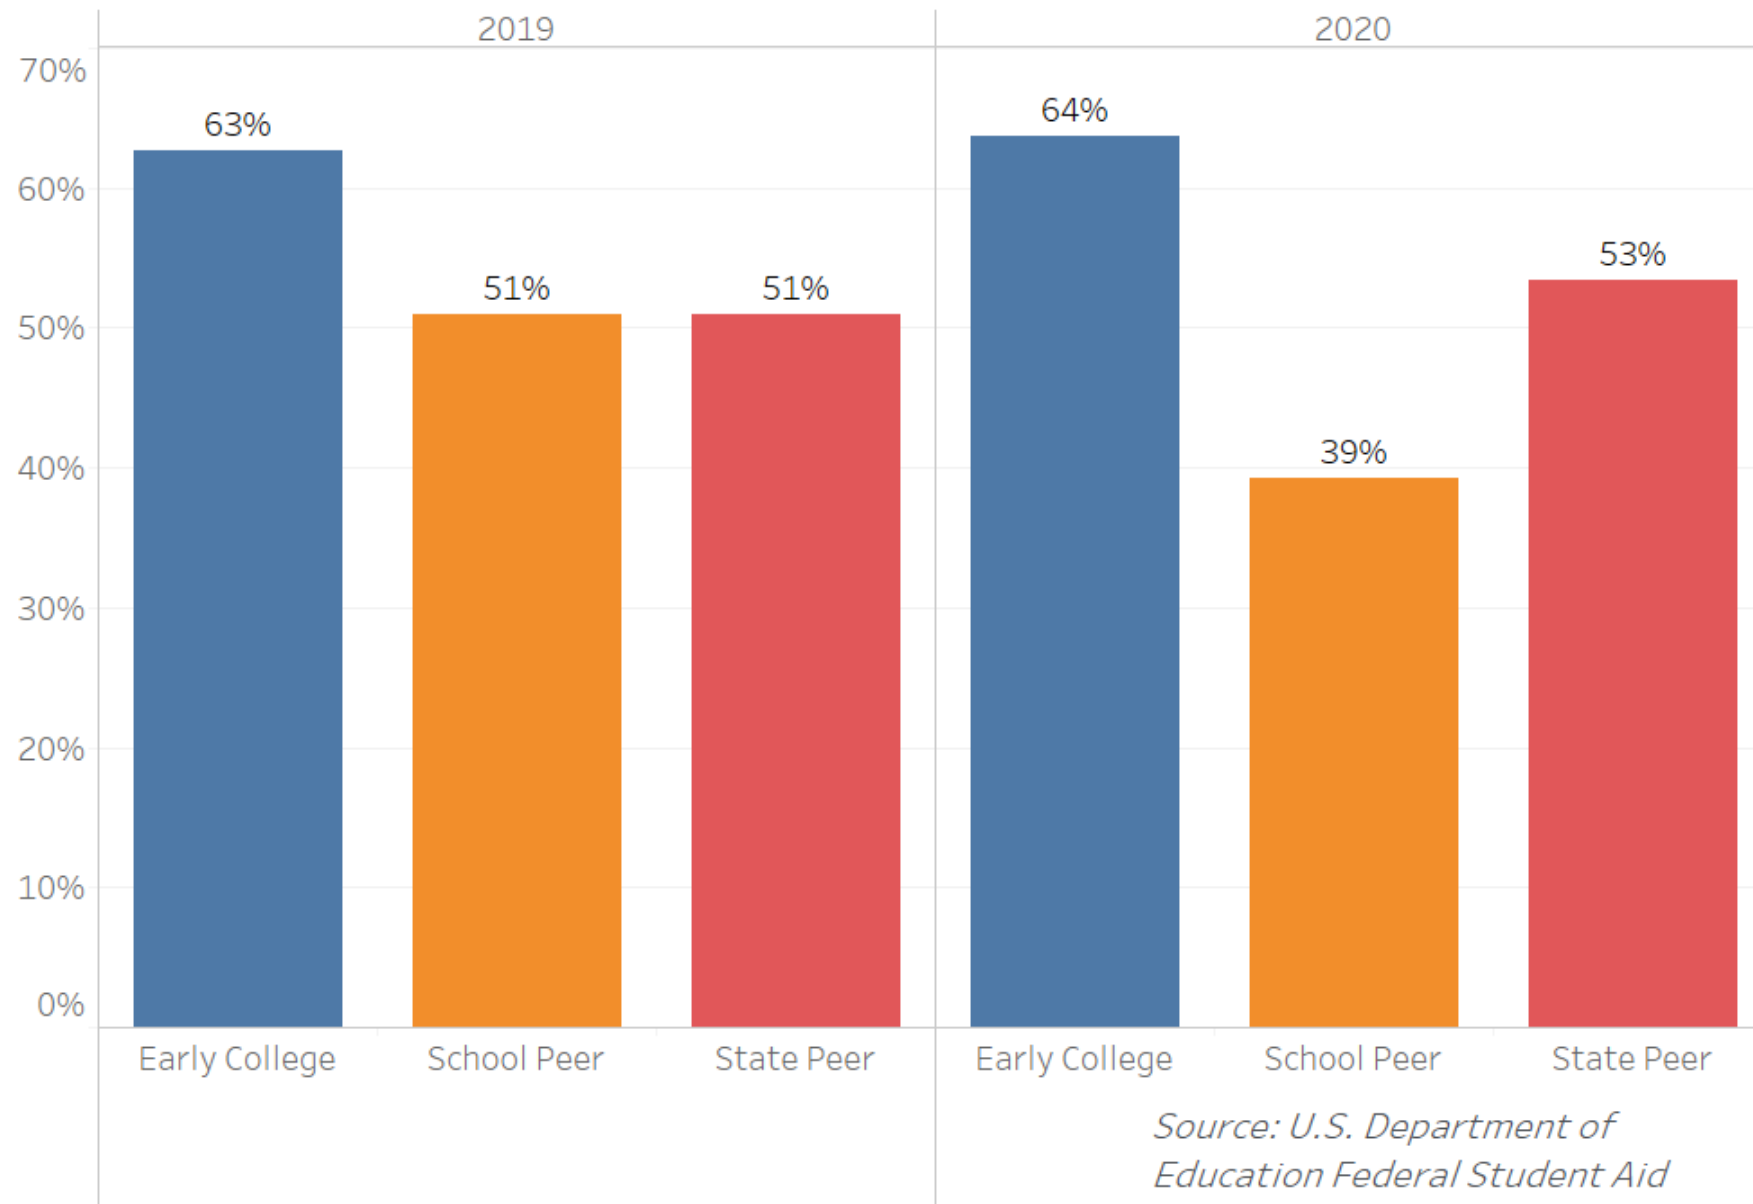

Meeting Expecations on Next Gen. MCAS (11th-12th)

Source: Massachusetts Comprehensive Assessment System (MCAS)

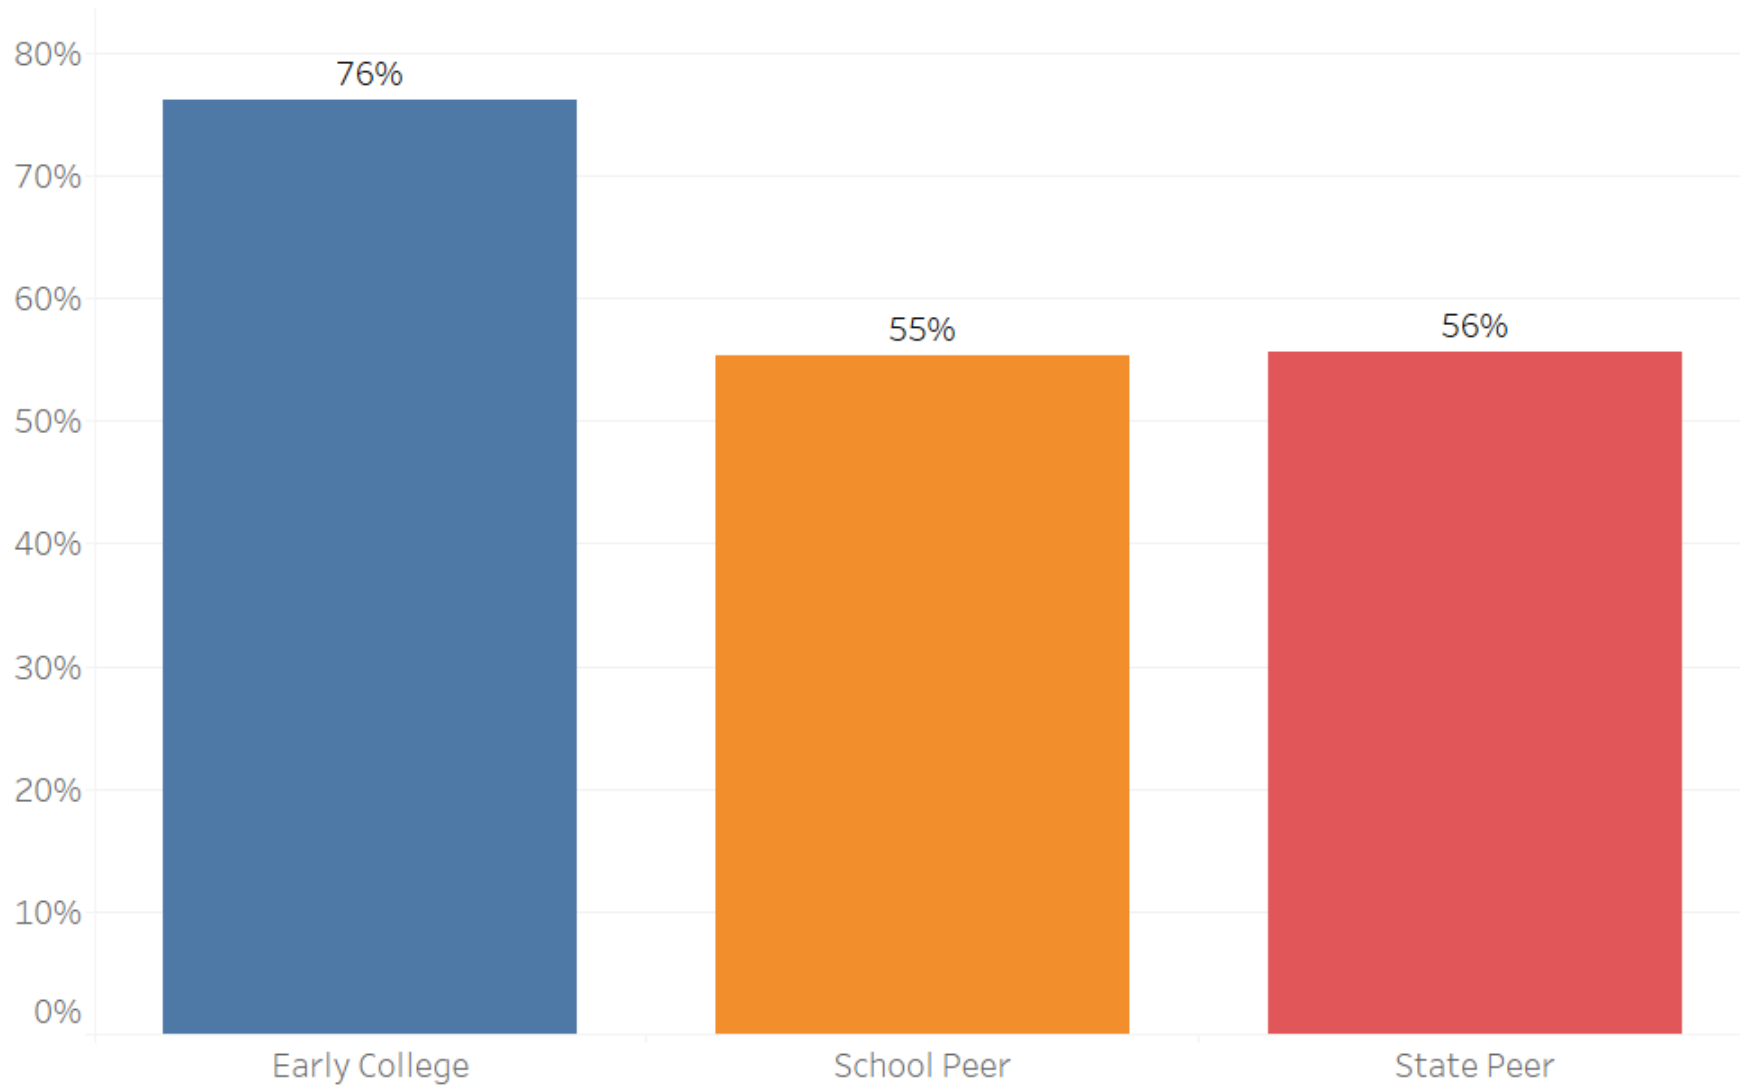

EC buffered from COVID-19 related dip in FAFSA completions:

FAFSA Completion Rates by Year (12th)

EC grads attend college at a 20 percentage point higher rate:

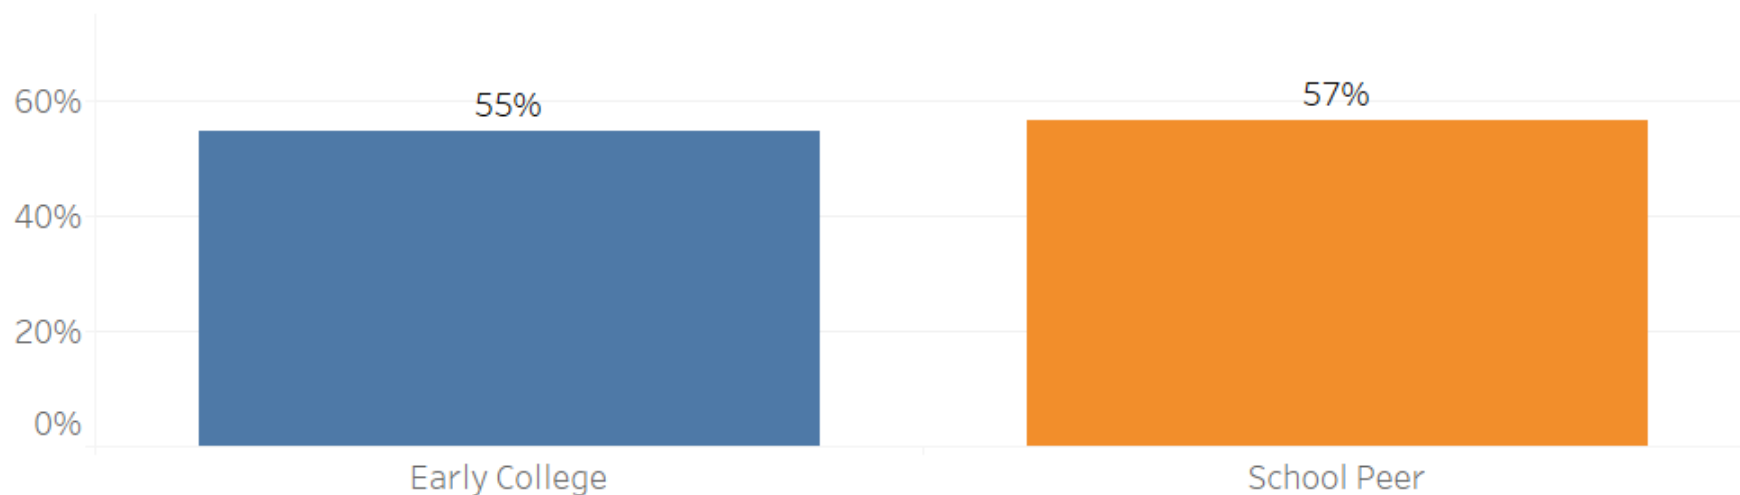

College Enrollment Within 6 Months

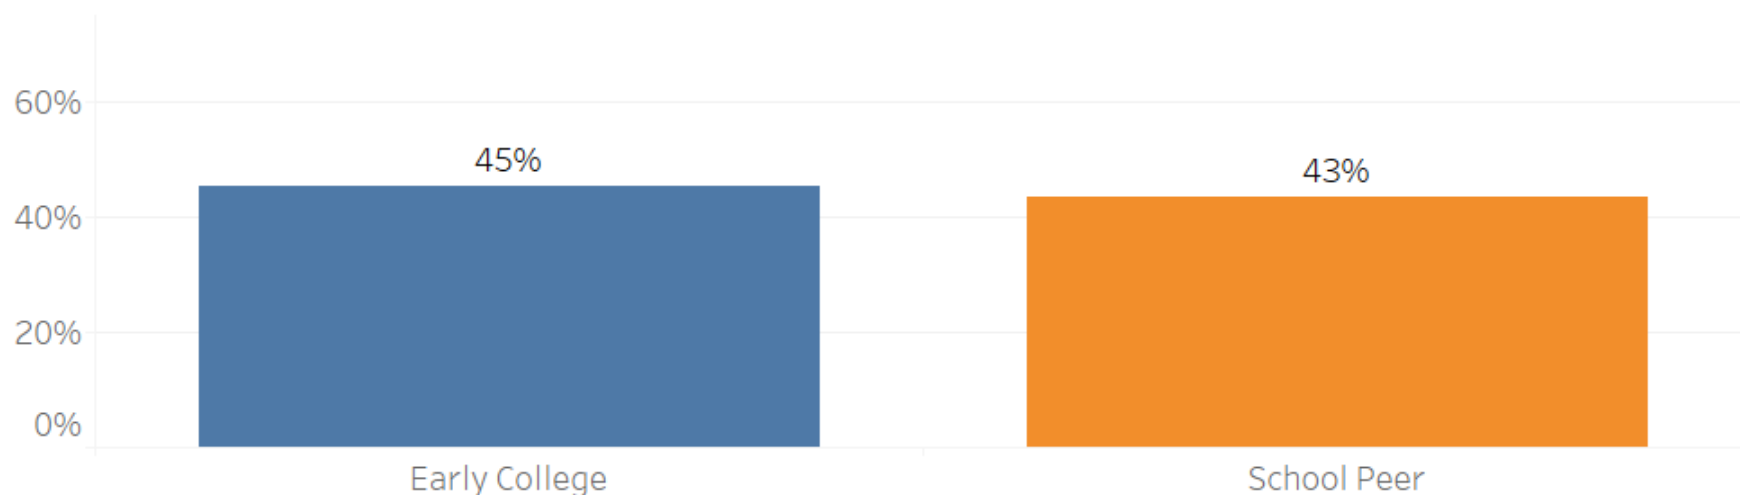

Source: National Student Clearinghouse (NSC)

EC enrollment patterns at 2 and 4 year colleges similar to school peers:

4-Year Colleges (Of Those Enrolled)

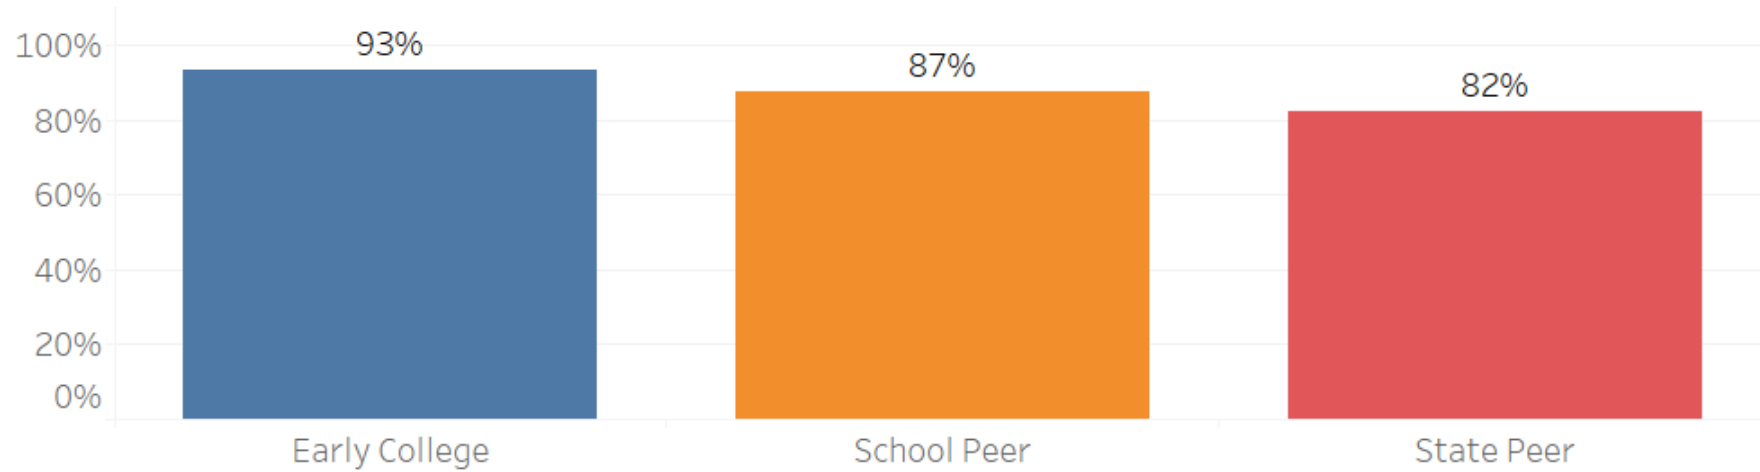

2-Year Colleges (Of Those Enrolled)

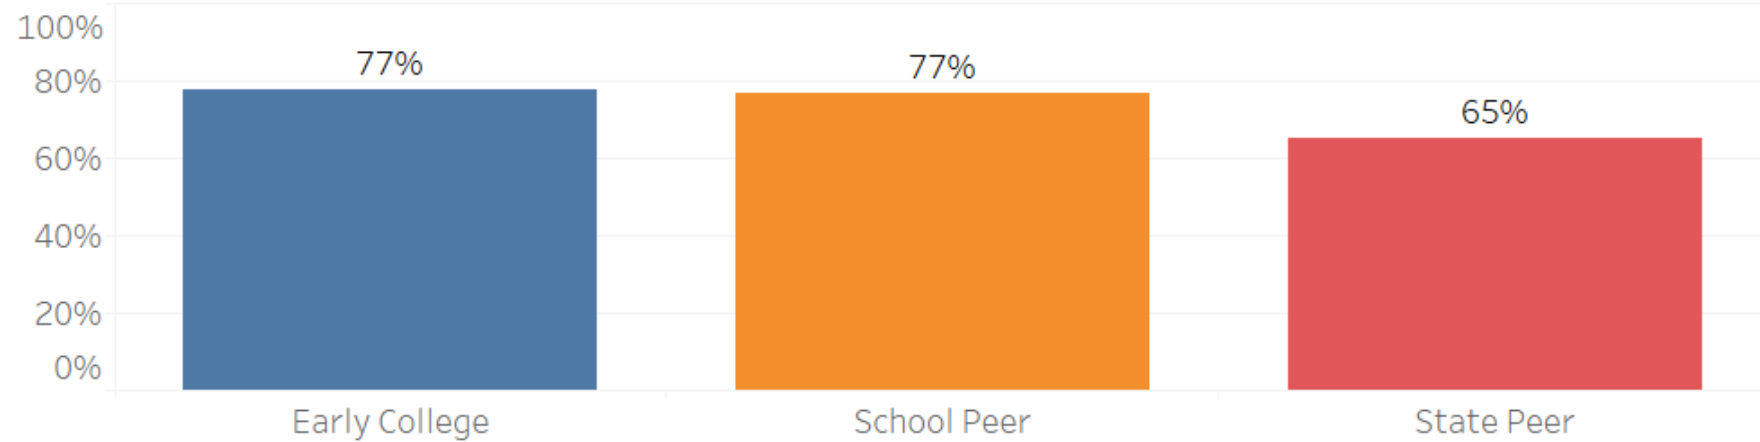

Source: National Student Clearinghouse (NSC)

More about their college destinations:

Remained In-State (Of Those Enrolled)

Attended Public Institutions Nationally (Of Those Enrolled)

Source: National Student Clearinghouse (NSC)