

Peter Dunn

Chief Development Officer
City of Worcester

Peter Dunn serves as Chief Development Officer for the City of Worcester, leading a team of dedicated public servants across multiple divisions in the areas of housing development, entrepreneurship and small businesses, workforce development, cultural development, planning, zoning, and special projects. Peter also serves as the Chief Executive Officer for the Worcester Redevelopment Authority. The WRA has two active urban renewal plans and owns the Union Station intermodal hub.